

These two sessions follow the process of drafting and final free-writing your persuasive letter.

No worksheet is needed as the tasks are explained within the video and the final day (session 8) is for you to write your own persuasive piece of writing.

When you have completed your persuasive letter, use the target sheet below to assess your own writing and make changes to it. Use a differently coloured pen or pencil to edit your writing.

Put a tick in the box next to each target you have completed.

My text has an interesting title.		I have used linking words to help the reader follow my text.
I have thought about the audience I am writing for and how I will persuade them.		I have used persuasive devices to convince the reader of my opinion.
I have an introduction that grabs the reader's attention and clearly explains my opinion about the topic.		I have used strong persuasive language throughout my text.
I have given strong reasons for my opinion and have explained these using interesting facts and details.		I have used different types of sentences for impact.
I have a conclusion that restates my opinion, reminds the reader of my reasons and leaves them with something to think about.		I have checked my work carefully and have corrected any spelling, grammar or punctuation mistakes.
I have written in paragraphs and each contains one main idea or set of ideas.
I have used topic sentences to make the idea of each paragraph clear.
