Set B, English lesson 5 Planning sheet

Use this to make notes of your ideas if you want to re-write an alternative ending. If you are going to re-tell the ending as it is, you can skip this step.

Where does the beanstalk take Jack and who does he meet?
What does Jack take back to his mother?
What happens at the end of the story?
		,

Big Question: Can you write the end of a	a story?
	n ideas. Write sentences to say what each picture shows.
Jack

Set B, English Lesson 5: Main activity: Level ★

Set B, English Lesson 5: Main activity: Level 🖈 🖈

Big Question: Can you write the end of a story?

Use the pictures below to re-tell the story or you can choose to draw your new ideas. You could change what happens at the end of the story.

Write in sentences to say what happened in each part of the end of the story.

Use your senses to describe things. Use noun phrases and verbs to describe what happened.

Continue on this page if you want to.

Pictures to help you.

